General Meeting

4/6/2021

Animal of the Week: Dumbo Octopus (genus Grimpotentis)

- It got its name from the Disney movie, Dumbo
- It is the deepest living genus of octopuses, living 4,000m below the surface
- Because it lives so far below, it rarely encounters predators, and doesn't have an ink sac
- It uses its ear-like fins to propel itself, and its tentacles to steer.
